

THINGS TO SEE ON YOUR RIDE

WC - Toilet

- Leyburn Station - Wensleydale Railway re-opened in 2003 and has regular steam train trips. There is a café with an open fire and well stocked bookshop.
- The Tea Pottery - the eccentric teapot designs have been sold worldwide and visitors can see them being hand crafted.
- Little Chocolate Factory - learn about the history of chocolate in the visitor centre and watch the skills involved in crafting handmade chocolates.
- Harmby Waterfall - the falls and cascade is magnificent, especially after heavy rain.
- Spennithorne Station - the distinctive former station building, now a private house, lies on the restored Wensleydale Railway and is a mile from the village it served.
- Wensleydale Longwool Sheep Shop - the finest lustre longwool in the world comes from Wensleydale sheep. Their large size, long curled fleeces and blue faces make them easily recognisable. Buy the wool at our shop near Garriston. Tel: 01969 623840
- Leyburn Auction Mart - the livestock auction is held every Friday and combined with the weekly market in the town centre attracts both residents and visitors.

USEFUL INFORMATION

The route uses quieter roads, as recommended by local cyclists, but you will be riding with traffic at times. Follow the Highway Code and take particular care at junctions and on descents.

CYCLING IN THE DALES

- Go slowly and with a wide gap past horse riders; make sure they are aware of your approach
- On narrow lanes give way to large vehicles, such as farm machinery
- If riding off-road remember to close gates and be aware of livestock
- Check your bike is fit for use and carry a puncture repair kit/inner tube; make yourself visible to other road users
- Remember there may be limited or no mobile phone coverage.
